Chapter 1 by Zacky D I guess

This is a story, and it is to be the only story that doesn't have dialogue.

all the characters have been informed of this, of course. and will not speak no matter what you do.

To start the story,

Once upon a day, There was a Child, Named.. Rune. It was an odd name, but nobody could make fun of it because they were all too young to be able to speak.

Chapter 2 by Rix Quill

Yet there was one exception - Scribb. He could communicate without words and Rune hated that.

From the opposite end of their early school playroom Scribb would attract Rune's attention with a load bang or a whistle. When Rune looked up and noticed the source of the noise, Scribb poked his tongue out. Rune hated that.

This was followed by Scribb placing both thumbs on his head and wriggling his fingers. And then, crossing his eyes, goofing his mouth with his arms and flapping them. Rune really hated all that.
